PSP/RTKL Request N° 2019-1000

Dear Ms. Best:

On September 17, 2019, the Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) received your request for information pursuant to Pennsylvania's Right-to-Know Law (RTKL), 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 – 67.3104, wherein you state:

Records describing, authorizing or mentioning expenses or personnel assignments in response to or accommodation of visits from officials in the federal government between January 1, 2001 and the present.

A copy of your request is enclosed. By letter dated September 24, 2019, you were notified in accordance with RTKL section 67.902(b) that PSP required an additional thirty days to prepare this final response to your request.

After several attempts to contact you by email on September 17, 2019, September 23, 2019 and October 7, 2019, no response has been received as of date.

On its face, your request is denied as insufficiently specific. The request lacks specific information, such as names of officials, types of expenses or personnel assignments, necessary for PSP to ascertain and retrieve the requested records. The RTKL requires that a request for records be made with "sufficient specificity to enable the agency to ascertain which records" are being requested. 65 P.S. § 67.703; Kantrowitz v. Great Valley School District, OOR Dkt N° AP 2009-0646; and Mollick v. Methacton School District, OOR Dkt N° AP 2009-0180.

Outside of the RTKL and without waiving any exemptions, in the event you are able to provide additional information, please do not hesitate to submit another RTKL request.

To the extent that your request seeks or may be construed to seek records involving covert law enforcement investigations, including intelligence gathering and analysis, PSP can neither confirm, nor deny the existence of such records without risk of compromising investigations and imperiling individuals. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES, therefore, should this response to your request be interpreted as indicating otherwise. In all events, should such records exist, they are entirely exempt from public disclosure under RTKL and CHRIA.

You have a right to appeal this response in writing to the Office of Open Records, 333 Market Street, 16th Floor, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17126-0333. Appeal forms are available on the OOR website: <https://www.dced.state.pa.us/public/oor/appealformgeneral.pdf>. If you choose to file an appeal, then you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of this response and send to OOR:

- 1) this response;
- 2) your request; and
- 3) your reasons for believing that the record is public (a statement of the grounds you assert for the requested record being a public record), as well as for believing the agency has wrongly withheld the record from disclosure (a statement that addresses any ground stated by the agency for the denial). If the agency has given several reasons for withholding the record, then indicate which ones you believe to be wrong.

Sincerely,

Kim Grant

Grant Verification

PENNSYLVANIA STATE POLICE DEPARTMENT HEADQUARTERS

VERIFICATION OF
KIM GRANT
DEPUTY AGENCY OPEN RECORDS OFFICER

I, Kim Grant, Deputy Agency Open Records Officer of the Pennsylvania State Police (PSP or Department), am authorized to prepare this verification on the Department's behalf in response to PSP/RTKL Request N° 2019-1000. Accordingly, on this 24th day of October, 2019, I verify the following facts to be true and correct, to the best of my knowledge or information and belief:

1. I am familiar with PSP/RTKL Request N° 2019-1000, which is attached to this verification.
2. After several attempts to contact the requestor by email on September 17, 2019, September 23, 2019 and October 7, 2019, no response has been received as of date.
3. The request is insufficiently specific because it fails to provide me sufficient facts to determine which records are sought and whether, on review, any part of the request constitutes a public record requiring disclosure.
4. Specifically, PSP cannot identify the records sought from the information provided because the request lacks specific information, such as names of officials, types of expenses or personnel assignments, necessary to ascertain and retrieve the requested records. Absent additional information, PSP cannot pinpoint the repository to search.
5. Outside the RTKL, the requestor was encouraged to provide more information and submit another request.

I understand that false statements made in this verification are subject to penalties of 18 Pa. C.S. § 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right to Know Act, I hereby request the following records:

Records describing, authorizing or mentioning expenses or personnel assignments in response to or accommodation of visits from officials in the federal government between January 1, 2001 and the present.

I am a member of the news media and request classification as such. I have previously written about the government and its activities, with some reaching over 100,000 readers in outlets such as Gizmodo, MuckRock, Motherboard, Property of the People, Unicorn Riot, and The Outline, among others. As such, as I have a reasonable expectation of publication and my editorial and writing skills are well established. In addition, I discuss and comment on the files online and make them available through non-profits such as the library Internet Archive and the journalist non-profit MuckRock, disseminating them to a large audience. While my research is not limited to this, a great deal of it, including this, focuses on the activities and attitudes of the government itself. As such, it is not necessary for me to demonstrate the relevance of this particular subject in advance.

As my primary purpose is to inform about government activities by reporting on it and making the raw data available, I request that fees be waived.

The requested documents will be made available to the general public, and this request is not being made for commercial purposes.

In the event that there are fees, I would be grateful if you would inform me of the total charges in advance of fulfilling my request. I would prefer the request filled electronically, by e-mail attachment if available or CD-ROM if not.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation in this matter. I look forward to receiving your response to this request within 5 business days, as the statute requires.

Sincerely,

Emma Best
